Unity

Key to
Revival

The Lord is preparing to make CNY “a habitation of His Glory”. At Apostle/Prophet Chuck Pierce’s June 25, 2010 visit to Syracuse, he prophesied that if God’s people would gather monthly in corporate praise and worship, after one year there would be a worship gathering that would shatter the “dome of darkness” over the region. Healing and salvation would then burst forth. This is the purpose of this gathering and we invite and encourage you to come to Faith Chapel as we prepare the way for God’s destiny for this region to be fulfilled.

In 1989, a vision of a Dome of Darkness was given. The dome was preventing the light of the gospel from penetrating the Syracuse area. In this vision, intercessors were seen surrounding the dome. Their words chipped away at the darkness and weakened the dome, but it would not yield to the prayers of the saints. Man’s efforts at urban renewal were then seen, but they were not Spirit-lead and were not effective. Individual evangelism was then seen saving one person at a time, but mass evangelism was elusive. God spoke: “Be led My Spirit and you will bring people out of the darkness and you will make openings for My Light to shine through. You will have partial victories on your own, you will bring some people out and you will let some light in, but you will not shatter the powers of darkness until there is unity. I call My people to unity. The unity of My people in Syracuse cannot be withstood by Satan. This is a spiritual war and the victory will be given in prayer. However, the prayer is not the end, but is to prepare you for the work that I have given you to do.” Finally, God’s praying remnant were seen – with swords in “His” hand and like the Musketeers they clanged their swords together and in unison declared “All for one and one for all” (the “One” would be Jesus) and the Dome shattered.

Come to Faith Chapel and let’s lift the sword of the Spirit together and declare in unity that Jesus is Lord over Central New York and see the dome of darkness shatter. Faith Chapel’s anointed worship leader, Lyn May, will lead us in jubilant praise and worship, along with a gifted worship team made up of musicians from various area churches

There will be a time of ministry for healing and other needs following the gathering. Please invite anyone who loves to worship and those who need God’s touch to attend.
